

Chorale prelude “Wer nur den lieben Gott läßt walten”

Johann Sebastian Bach

BWV Anh. 691

The first system of the musical score consists of two staves, treble and bass clef, in common time. The treble staff begins with a quarter rest, followed by a series of eighth and sixteenth notes with various ornaments. The bass staff starts with a half note chord, followed by a sequence of eighth notes and quarter notes.

The second system continues the piece, starting with a measure number '3'. It features more complex rhythmic patterns in the treble staff, including sixteenth-note runs and ornaments. The bass staff provides a steady accompaniment with quarter and eighth notes.

The third system begins with a measure number '5'. The treble staff has a dense texture of sixteenth notes with ornaments. The bass staff continues with a simple eighth-note accompaniment.

The fourth system starts with a measure number '7'. The treble staff features a melodic line with ornaments and a final cadence. The bass staff concludes with a series of quarter notes and a final chord.
